

Firth River Journey

Join this journey of discovery with an experienced team of Parks Canada's science and cultural staff and our senior river guides.

Porcupine Caribou migration route

Parks Canada Scientists and Cultural Interpreters

Beluga vertebrae, Beaufort Sea, Arctic Ocean

Parks
Canada

Parcs
Canada

Adventure • Science • Research • Culture

Imagine floating down the oldest river on the continent; hiking ancient mountains under the midnight sun while enjoying the tundra wildflowers and wildlife, great cuisine, and Arctic Ocean views. Parks Canada and Canadian River Expeditions partner to combine science and Inuvialuit culture on a classic river journey, in a spectacular setting.

1(800) 297-6927 / INFO@NAHANNI.COM

FOR COMPLETE DETAILS: NAHANNI.COM (SELECT FIRTH RIVER)

The most hiking on any guided river trip north of 60°

A raft journey down the Firth River in Ivvavik National Park is enchanting – ancient mountains, tundra flowers, wildlife, hiking, Arctic Ocean and midnight sun!

ROBERT PURNEY

Most northerly Dall's sheep population in North America

Firth Canyon – scenic passage from the British Mountains to the coastal tundra plains and Arctic Ocean.

Comfortable camping

World class Dolly Varden Char

FOR COMPLETE DETAILS: NAHANNI.COM (SELECT FIRTH RIVER)

ALL PHOTOS – TYLER GARNHAM – UNLESS OTHERWISE NOTED